SIEMENS MEDICAL SOLUTIONS HEALTH SERVICES CORPORATION'S
ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM TO PLAINTIFF'S AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions Health Services Corporation (incorrectly identified in the Amended Complaint as Siemens Medical Solutions Health Services Corp. and hereinafter referred to as "HS") hereby responds to Plaintiff, Syed Iqbal Raza, M.D.'s ("Raza") Amended Complaint as follows. As a preliminary matter, by raising the following defenses, HS assumes no burden that does not already legally apply to it. Further, HS will rely on any and all provable defenses, beyond those identified here, developed from discovery and further investigation, reserving the right to amend this pleading to conform thereto. Moreover, HS will demand strict proof of each and every allegation contained in Raza's Amended Complaint.

First Defense

1. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 1 and, accordingly, denies such averments.

2. The averments of Paragraph 2 are directed to a defendant other than HS and HS, accordingly, has no obligation to respond. By way of further answer, HS admits that Defendant Siemens Medical Solutions, USA, Inc. ("Medical Solutions") is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, has a place of business at 51 Valley Stream Parkway, Malvern, Pennsylvania 19355-1406 and that Medical Solutions is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Siemens Corporation.

3. HS admits that it is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and has a principal place of business at 51 Valley Stream Parkway, Malvern, Pennsylvania 19355-1406. HS denies that it is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Defendant Siemens AG. By way of further answer, HS states that it is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Medical Solutions.

4. The averments of Paragraph 4 are directed to a defendant that has been dismissed pursuant to a Stipulation of Dismissal dated April 17, 2006, and, as such, no responsive pleading is required.

5. The averments of Paragraph 5 are directed to a defendant other than HS and HS, accordingly, has no obligation to respond. By way of further answer, HS admits only that Siemens AG is incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Germany and has its principal place of business in Munich, Germany. HS denies any attempt to characterize the business units owned by Siemens AG.

6. HS admits only that Raza purports to invoke the subject-matter jurisdiction of this Court. To the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required.

7. HS admits only that Raza purports to invoke the jurisdiction of this Court as to HS and Medical Solutions.<sup>1</sup> HS denies all remaining averments contained in Paragraph 7. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required.

8. The averments of Paragraph 8 are directed to a defendant other than HS and HS, accordingly, has no obligation to respond. HS denies all of the averments contained in Paragraph 8. To the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required.

9. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 9. HS specifically denies that it has ever offered for sale or sold any product containing Raza's proprietary trade secrets, to the extent any such proprietary trade secrets even exist. To the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required.

10. The averments of Paragraph 10 constitute legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

11. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 11 and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 11. HS specifically denies that Raza had a developed software product "by 2000" as Raza has expressly plead to the contrary. See Am. Compl. ¶¶ 12-13 (describing "potential software" as of September, October and November 2000).

12. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 12 and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 12. By way of further response, and upon information and belief based upon Raza's filings with a Pakistani Court, HS alleges that it appears that Dr. Simon Azariah of Strengthening of Health Services Academy in Pakistan ("SHAIP") wrote Raza a letter on September 20, 2000, a copy of which is attached hereto at Exhibit A.<sup>2</sup> On its face, the Azariah

<sup>2</sup> A court may take judicial notice of public records filed outside the pleadings. See, e.g., In re NAHC, Inc. Securities Litigation, 306 F.3d 1314, 1331 (3d Cir. 2002) (upholding district court's judicial notice on a motion to dismiss of "(1) documents relied upon in the Complaint . . . Letter contained various criticisms relating to Dr. Sir. The Azariah Letter further states that “Dr. Sir 104” is connected with “Human Resource Management” and “performance appraisal” and that Dr. Sir’s purported purpose is to measure the “efficiency” of various medical professionals. The Azariah Letter makes clear that, as of September 20, 2000, no software in connection with Dr. Sir had been developed. Moreover, HS specifically denies that “approximately 160 pages of descriptive analyses and spreadsheets documenting [Raza’s] proprietary concepts” were forwarded to the German Embassy in Islamabad. On the contrary, upon information and belief obtained from a letter dated October 9, 2000 signed by Dr. Aime De Muynck to the Counselor, Head of the Economic and Commercial Section of the German Embassy in Islamabad (Peter H. Muerz) also filed in the Pakistani Action and attached hereto as Exhibit C, only a “short outline” was purportedly forwarded by Dr. De Muynck to the German Embassy in Islamabad.

13. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 13 and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 13. HS specifically denies that any individual at the German Embassy in Pakistan has or had the ability to speak on behalf of or to bind HS, or any other entity affiliated with HS or Siemens. By way of further response, and upon information and belief obtained by Raza’s own filings in the Pakistani Action, it appears that Dr. Aime De Muynck, not Raza, sent Corp. v. White Consol. Indus., Inc.*, 998 F.2d 1192, 1196 (3d Cir. 1993). Raza filed this letter, as well as all of the other exhibits attached hereto, in support of his complaint against various entities, including HS, in Islamabad, Pakistan in September 2003. See Raza v. Siemens AG et al., Civil Suit No. 693/03, (Civil Court, Islamabad, Pakistan) (the “Pakistani Action”). A copy of the Pakistani Action is attached hereto as Exhibit B. to Mr. Peter Muerz, Counselor Head Economic and Commercial Section of the German Embassy at Islamabad, a “short outline of a proposal aiming to develop an expert system in hospital management.” See Ex. C. HS specifically denies that it ever received anything whatsoever in connection with Dr. Sir from the German Embassy, from Dr. De Muynck, from Raza or from anyone else.

14. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 14 and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 14. Upon information and belief based on the filings submitted by Raza in the Pakistani Action, it appears that an individual named Farrukh Latif of Siemens Pakistan Engineering Co. Ltd. wrote a letter to Raza, dated January 1, 2001 (“Latif Letter”). A copy of the Latif Letter, obtained through Raza’s filings in the Pakistani Action, is attached hereto as Exhibit D. The remaining allegations of Paragraph 14 are based upon this writing. The Latif Letter speaks for itself and HS denies any averments purporting to characterize this letter. By way of further answer, HS states that the Latif Letter does not identify what the entity identified as Siemens Pakistan Engineering Co. Ltd. actually received from Muerz in connection with Dr. Sir.

15. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 15. HS specifically denies ever receiving, at any time, “160 pages of Dr.-Sir concept pages,” or any other documents or information relating to Dr. Sir. HS is without knowledge regarding what some other separate entity, Siemens Pakistan Engineering Co. Ltd., may have received from Muerz in connection with Dr. Sir.

16. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 16. HS specifically denies that “Siemens” sent the Latif Letter, and further specifically denies that HS sent the Latif Letter.

Further, upon information and belief obtained from Raza's filings in the Pakistani Action, it appears from its face that the Latif Letter was sent by a representative of Siemens Pakistan Engineering Co. Ltd. See Ex. D. HS further denies that Raza registered Dr. Sir with any governmental entity that is empowered to recognize intellectual property rights. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining averments of Paragraph 16 regarding any awards purportedly won by Raza and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 16.

17. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 17. HS specifically denies that it ever received, reviewed or retained any concept papers or other information relating to Dr.-Sir. HS further denies that Raza has any "proprietary" Dr. Sir concept papers. HS admits only that, on October 23, 2001, it launched Soarian® in the United States. By way of further response, Soarian® is a web-enabled software product that streamlines and integrates financial, clinical, and operational functions of a health care facility to manage all processes of patient care.

18. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in paragraph 18 regarding Zia Chishty, Zia Chishty's conversation with Raza, or Raza's review of Soarian®, and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 18. HS specifically denies that there is any similarity between any information disclosed to the German Embassy in Islamabad by De Muynck and Soarian®. HS also specifically denies that anything relating to Dr. Sir was disclosed to it in November 2000 or any time thereafter until Raza's initiation of the Pakistani Action. HS further specifically denies that Raza has any proprietary interest in "concepts relating to patient-centric management, embedded analytics and work flow technologies" and denies that Dr. Sir, as explained by Raza himself, has any relation to those concepts.

19. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 19. By way of further answer, HS denies that it misappropriated anything from Raza and further denies that any of Raza's "proprietary concepts", to the extent Raza has any proprietary concepts, are being used by HS in connection with Soarian® or any other HS product. To the extent the averments of Paragraph 19 constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required.

20. Answering Paragraph 20, HS incorporates by reference its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 19, as if fully set forth herein.

21. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 21. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required. By way of further answer, and upon information and belief based on Raza's own pleadings and filings in the Pakistani Action, Raza has made his "concepts relating to the Dr. Sir software product" available to various individuals and organizations throughout the world with no expectation of confidentiality. Specifically, Raza plead in his Pakistani complaint that "during the year 2000 a number of detailed presentations of 'Dr. Sir' were given by the Plaintiff to various organizations in Pakistan." Ex. B ¶ 5. Raza additionally plead that, in 2001, he gave "extensive demonstrations" on Dr. Sir to: the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the World Health Organization, the Pakistan Medical Research Council, the Pakistan Medical and Dental Council, the Ministry of Health Government of Pakistan, the Board of Governors of Rawalpindi, Medical College and Allied Hospitals, the Pakistan Software Export Board and the National Productivity Organization. See Ex. B ¶ 12. Raza also plead that he disclosed Dr. Sir to the United States State Department, the United States Educational Foundation in Pakistan, some unidentified "top" university in the U.S., an "International Organization with Head Office at USA" and the U.S. Foreign Commercial Liaison Office. Ex. B ¶¶ 13-14. See also Letter by

Raza to Dr. Khalif Bile Mohamud, dated September 11, 2001, attached hereto as Exhibit E, letter to Raza from Dr. Asif Mahmood, attached hereto as Exhibit F; letter of Dr. Tasleem Akhtar to Mushtaq Hussain dated March 6, 2002, attached hereto as Exhibit G; email from Linda C. Cheatham to Raza dated August 27, 2002, attached hereto as Exhibit H. HS further denies that Raza ever had a “software product.”

22. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 22. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required. By way of further answer, HS avers that, to the extent that Raza even has any proprietary concepts or right to concepts, Raza has done nothing to maintain the secrecy of such concepts relating to Dr. Sir. On the contrary and by his own admission, HS avers, upon information and belief gained from Raza’s filings in the Pakistani Action, that Raza has disclosed concepts and information relating to Dr. Sir to several different entities throughout the world without any expectation of confidentiality. In fact, Raza plead in his Pakistani complaint that “during the year 2000 a number of detailed presentations of ‘Dr. Sir’ were given by the Plaintiff to various organizations in Pakistan.” Ex. B ¶ 5. Raza additionally plead that, in 2001, he gave “extensive demonstrations” on Dr. Sir to: the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the World Health Organization, the Pakistan Medical Research Council, the Pakistan Medical and Dental Council, the Ministry of Health Government of Pakistan, the Board of Governors of Rawalpindi, Medical College and Allied Hospitals, the Pakistan Software Export Board and the National Productivity Organization. See Ex. B ¶ 12. Raza also plead that he disclosed Dr.-SIR to the United States State Department, the United States Educational Foundation in Pakistan, some unidentified “top” university in the U.S., an “International Organization with Head Office at USA” and the U.S. Foreign Commercial Liaison Office. Ex. B ¶¶ 13-14. See also Exhibits E, F, G, and H.

23. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 23. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required. HS specifically denies that it ever received anything whatsoever in connection with Dr. Sir from any source or that it used any proprietary information belonging to Raza, to the extent Raza even has any “proprietary” information. HS further specifically denies that Raza owns any legally protected concepts or proprietary information.

24. HS is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 24 and, accordingly, denies each and every averment contained in Paragraph 24. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required. HS specifically denies that it ever received anything whatsoever in connection with Dr. Sir from any source or that it used any proprietary information belonging to Raza, to the extent Raza even has any “proprietary” information. HS further specifically denies that Raza owns any legally protected concepts or proprietary information.

25. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 25. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required. HS specifically denies that it ever received anything whatsoever in connection with Dr. Sir from any source or that it used any proprietary information belonging to Raza, to the extent Raza even has any “proprietary” information. HS further specifically denies that Raza owns any legally protected concepts or proprietary information.

26. Answering Paragraph 26, HS incorporates by reference its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 25 as if fully set forth herein.

27. HS denies the averments of Paragraph 27. Moreover, to the extent the averments of this paragraph constitute legal conclusions, no responsive pleading is required. HS specifically denies that it ever received anything whatsoever in connection with Dr. Sir from any source or that it used any proprietary information belonging to Raza, to the extent Raza even has any “proprietary” information. HS further specifically denies that Raza owns any legally protected concepts or proprietary information. HS further specifically denies that it was unjustly enriched.

WHEREFORE, HS respectfully prays:

1. That Raza take nothing, that Counts 1 and 2 of the Amended Complaint be dismissed with prejudice, and that judgment be entered in favor of HS;
2. For costs of suit;
3. For reasonable attorneys’ fees according to the applicable law; and

National Institute for Handicapped
Islamabad

DR. S.I.R. - 104

Dear Dr. Raza,

It has been a pleasurable experience to meet you, receive an enlightening presentation and read through the documents you sent later. Clearly you have contributed to an important area of Human Resource Management through which an interesting and effective mechanism of performance appraisal can be developed. The work you have carried out so far is commendable and has a lot of potential.

After having reviewed the documents and discussing the various aspects with Prof. Aimé de Muynck, some issues regarding Dr. S. I. R. - 104 are given below for your consideration:

1. The mathematical basis and the necessary background information used for the calculation of the 'co-efficient' used in the computing of Work Unit for various categories of medical staff are not clear from the documents supplied which leaves a gap in understanding the dynamics, implications and value of the Work Unit.
2. The calculation of Work Efficiency (per Dollar / Rupee) appears to be incomplete or perhaps is a misnomer. The reason is that in economic terms determination of 'efficiency' requires the involvement of the various costs incurred in production of the services for which work-efficiency is to be calculated and then the worth or value of the services rendered in money terms can be calculated. Many people argue that therefore financial analysis of health services is not ethical as the value of a life saved or a therapy provided cannot be determined in money terms.
Moreover, there are many aspects of determining the efficiency of a service in addition to the human resources, which do not figure out in the system developed so far.
Therefore it is recommended that more arguments and work need to go in for clarifying the concept of work-efficiency used in Dr.SIR104.
3. The present system only seems to be aimed at Hospital settings and ignores the primary and secondary health care levels. Such a system for primary and secondary health services is also important as the larger proportion of personnel are present in the primary and secondary levels where the need for human resource management is greatest.

4. From another user's point of view the explanation of the package developed does not offer clear-cut benefits and therefore some work also needs to be undertaken to analyse the point of view of other possible users and their needs.
5. The definition of various baseline information requirements for setting up the system so that it can start calculating and producing results for a given situation are not clear at all. This is very important so that the possible user understands the parameters on which the system is based and the scope of the calculations is understood. This will also establish the importance of the calculations that are being conducted. Likewise the information needs for doing specific calculations are also not clearly mentioned.
6. It is proposed that once the response to the above issues is satisfactorily generated the system should be developed in Visual Basic at the front end and MS Access or FoxPro at the back end for calculations. This will ensure ease of communication with the software and user-friendliness of the system. What is meant is that the capability of simulating the lengthy process that you have described in a smooth and quick way is necessary for independent use of the software.
7. Once the software is developed it needs to be tested by independent personnel on pilot basis on at least 3-5 institutions, which will then establish the validity, feasibility and reliability of the system after necessary trouble shooting.
8. If the system is aimed to be used for the human resource appraisal by other institutions and personnel, a simple and comprehensive training module has to be developed.
9. As a final step a comprehensive Marketing Strategy will have to be developed so that the final product can be brought to the market to compete with other products in its category.

➡ It is strongly recommended that you should utilize the services, on contract basis, of a firm that has the capacity of providing hospital and health systems' variables analysis in addition to software development. We at SHAIP/HSA do not have such a combination, however, if you like we can facilitate such an arrangement.

With warm regards and best wishes

Dr. Simon Azari

 Subject: RE: Male Volunteer voice for Dr-SIR 104 project

Dear Dr. Raza,

I have just scanned your extremely lengthy proposal, but to be very honest with you, I simply don't have time to read such things – and, even working 12- to 16-hour days, seven days a week, will not for the next several weeks at the very least. As I explained by phone earlier today, the Embassy is at emergency staffing levels and I am currently wearing several extra hats and have had to suddenly relocate my entire American Center staff for security reasons. For that reason, I repeat my request that you send me a brief (preferably one-page summary) of what exactly you need an American male voice for and how much time will be required – something I can then simply forward to any Embassy colleagues who might be willing to volunteer. Then, if anyone responds positively, I will put him directly in touch with you. (If not, perhaps a teacher at the International School might be interested, but you would have to contact the school directly, as I can offer no leads for you outside the Embassy community right now.) If you get the one-page summary to me first thing tomorrow, I can consider it for forwarding then and perhaps I'll have an answer for you when you phone on Thursday.

As much as I would like to be able to help a Humphrey alum more thoroughly, this is simply all I can do to assist you given the current circumstances under which I'm working. Since you have contacted me as a Humphrey Fellow, I am copying our USEF/P executive director, Dr. Nancy Ahson, on my reply.

Sincerely,
 Linda
